English Breakfast Tea

A unique blend of two Assam teas, specially blended in Kolkata, India. It has a full, malty flavour and a rich, dark colour. Can be served with or without milk.

£2.5

Earl Grey

A classic blend of Earl Grey using Chinese black tea grown on the outskirts of Simao City. It's floral flavour derives from oil of Bergamot, produced from the rind of the Bergamot orange.

£2.5

Orange Blossom Oolong

A flavoured Taiwanese Oolong blended with orange peel and natural orange oil. The tea is toasted, giving a bold brew. This does well for people who don't take to the floral notes of Earl Grey.

£2.5

Peppermint

A Serbian whole leaf peppermint. The leaf is shredded to allow for a faster infusion.

As it does not contain any actual tea, this is a 100% caffeine free infusion.

£2.5

Chamomile

An Egyptian Chamomile infusion which uses the full bud and petals of the plant for a full bodied flavour.

As it does not contain any actual tea, this is a 100% caffeine free infusion.

£2.5

Vietnamese Green

A robust and slightly smoky green tea grown in the Thai Nguyen region. North Vietnam's climate favours this teas growth.

After plucking, the tea is processed by wrapping the leaves into small pellets.

£2.8

Loose Leaf Tea

Rohini 1st Flush

Plucking and processing of this tea proceeds annually on the first week of March. Because it's plucked after the winter months, the buds are more flavoursome, known for their muscatel notes.

£3.5

Kukicha Sencha

Sencha is a Japanese green tea. The young leaves are processed using a process to break down the cells of the leaf, producing a fuller flavour and aroma along with a fluorescent green colour

£4

Huang Jin Gui Oolong

This is a green Oolong. Like many others, Huang Jin Gui is grown at high altitude, picked from a specific species of Oolong trees. This tea is hand picked and rolled, making it a truly artisan tea

£4.5

Silvery Needle

Grown in Fuding, this silver needle white tea is harvested on only a few days each spring. It is composed entirely of plump, unopened leaf buds and is famous for it's fresh, delicate flavour.
